

SUBJECT & QUALIFICATION: Hospitality & Catering

Why is the study of Hospitality & Catering important?

Hospitality and Catering is an essential subject for all whether you are a budding chef, an interested amateur cook or you would like to work in the hospitality industry. This course covers a cross section of the Hospitality and Catering industry combining practical skills and knowledge to give a well-rounded understanding of the industry and the potential it can offer for further careers or study.

Employment in this industry can range from chefs, waiting staff, receptionists and managers to food scientists and environmental health officers. According to the British Hospitality Association this is Britain's fourth largest industry, since 2010 over 25% of all new jobs have been in the Hospitality and Catering Industry with a large proportion of new roles going to 18-24 year olds.

Additionally, you will develop your organisational skills, learning how to work as part of a team, becoming a good communicator and time manager. Successful completion of this qualification could support entry to qualifications that develop specific skills for work in hospitality and catering such as:

- Level I Certificate in Introduction to Professional Food and Beverage Service Skills
- Level 2 Certificate in Professional Food and Beverage Service Skills
- Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Professional Cookery
- Level 3 Food Science and Nutrition
- Hospitality, Tourism and Event Management Degree
- International Hospitality Management Degree

What skills will the study of Hospitality & Catering teach you?

You will develop a range of skills including food preparation and cooking skills using a variety of ingredients, as well as transferable skills of problem solving, organisation, time management, planning and communication. You will also develop skills of project based research, development and presentation.

What will you know and understand from your study of Hospitality & Catering?

The course consists of 2 units. Unit 1 - exam revision providing a good understanding of a cross section of the Hospitality and Catering industry. Unit 2 - controlled assessment which has a focus on nutrition, menu planning and cookery skills.
